

YOU ARE INVITED TO

Virtual Roundtable Panel Discussion Singapore | Australia

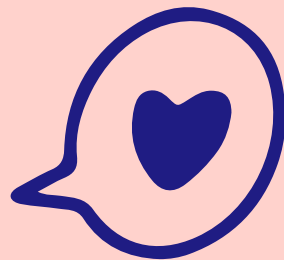

APRIL 24, 2023 | 12PM - 1.15PM (SGT)

Sign-up here : bit.ly/giwroundtable23

In collaboration with Australian Institute of Intergenerational Practice

Objectives

This Roundtable panel discussion aims to provide a platform to share experiences, insights, and best practices in intergenerational works. Renowned speakers will highlight the importance of intergenerational relationships and key tips for building sustainable intergenerational efforts

Event Overview

1. Welcome

- Introductions of Panelists
- Introduction to Intergenerational Practice

2. Sharing by Panelists

- Case Studies of Intergenerational Practice
- Experiences in planning and execution of intergenerational programs
- Action tips to forge intergenerational bonding

3. Q&A Segment

- Panelists and participants are welcome to ask questions

Panelists Bio (Singapore)

Dr Thang Leng Leng

- Associate Professor at the Department of Japanese Studies and co-Director of Next Age Institute, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, National University of Singapore.
- Her research covers wide topics, e.g. active ageing, lifelong learning, grandparent-grandchildren relationships, environmental gerontology and ageing-in-place.

Ms Susana Concorde Harding

- Senior Director at the International Longevity Centre Singapore,
- Provides overall direction and leadership of the Centre's policy advocacy efforts and research efforts.
- Honourary Secretary of the Board of Directors at Centre for Seniors and Gerontological Society of Singapore.

Ms Siew Ling Lee

- Specialist at the College of Interdisciplinary & Experiential Learning (CIEL), Singapore University of Social Sciences
- Passionate about community innovation, design "doing" and holistic experiential learning focused on empowering individuals and communities.

Panelists Bio (Australia)

Emeritus Professor Anneke Fitzgerald

- Has over 20 years experience in the health industry as a nurse and health services manager.
- Pioneered the Griffith University intergenerational practice research program, successfully building an evidence base for best intergenerational practice in Australia.

Ms Gabriela Di Perna

- Has over 15 years of experience across the disability and aged care sector in WA.
- In the last 2 years, she has been working with Griffith University as a research fellow and project manager of a two-year Intergenerational Learning Pilot.
- Gabriela serves on the Advisory Committee of the Australian Institute for intergenerational Practice (AIIP).

Ms Joanne Scott

- Library Team Leader at Taminmin Community Library
- Popular programs include Library Buddies (bringing together pre-schoolers and senior citizens) and Students vs Seniors (youth sharing games, activities and laughter with local Seniors)
- Joanne has written and implemented regular intergenerational activities and programs.

Moderators Bio

P. Keerthana (Singapore)

- Social Services Planner and Researcher
- Founder of GenLab Collective, a non-profit initiative working with seniors to empower them through intergenerational efforts
- Key areas of expertise include qualitative and quantitative research, behavioural science research, strategic and corporate planning, and social service planning

Jelisa Tan (Australia)

- Griffith University Bachelor of Child, Youth and Family Practice Graduate.
- Children's Centre and Outside School Hours Care Educator (Australia).